

Special Issue :

International Relations in East Asia Seen from the Rules to Construct Tombs

Formation of the Trade System between Laolang-jun and San-Han in the Korean Peninsula

Kenji Takaku

Relationship between the Three Kingdoms in the Korean Peninsula and Wa-Japan

Seen from the Rules to Construct Tombs

Yoshiyuki Habuta

A Preliminary Study on the Graveyards of the Tang Age Excavated in the Southern Suburbs of Chang'an

Liu Dai-yun

translation : Toshihiko Miyake

International Situation and Human Interchange in Ancient East Asia

Sugawara Michizane and Diplomacy in 9th Century Japan

Gao Bing-bing

Cultural Exchange between Japan and Pohai :

With a Special Reference to Acceptance of the Baoshi-wenji in the Jowa Era

Kumiko Hamada

Japan and Asia during 9th to 12th Centuries : From the Viewpoint of Travellers by Sea

Shinji Yamauchi

Japanese Envoys to Tang Dynasty China and 'Tojin' Coming to Japan :

With a Special Reference to Huangfu-Dong-chao

Kenichi Yano

History of the East Asian World and that of the East Eurasian World :

Placing the Focus on International Relations, International Order and International Consciousness of Liang

Yasutami Suzuki

Articles :

A Memorandum on the Tomb Inscription of Ni-jun

Ge Ji-yong

Review :

Yeh Kuo-Liang, A Study on Epigraphy of the Sung Dynasty

Masaaki Tsuchiya

Summary of Our Studies for Five Years :

Thoughts on the Discussions about the Ancient East Asian History

Hideyuki Iio

On Our Studies for Five Years

Toshio Araki

Miscellany :

Ancient East Asia and Students Abroad in Global Perspective The Center For Historical Studies -East Asia-

March 2012